Lenten Seminar on the Book of Jonah

Featuring Dr. Diane Damos
Saturday, March 13, 2010

1:30p.m assembly at the Church Hall; 2:00p.m. Seminar (Lenten refreshments will be provided) followed by Great Vespers at 5:00p.m.

The Book of the Prophet Jonah is one of the gems of the Old Testament. During Lent, Orthodox Christians are encouraged to read and mediate on this Book. Why is it appropriate for Lent? During this 3-hour seminar, we will study Jonah from a number of different perspectives. We will discuss the history of the book and how it was used in worship at the time of Christ. Because Jonah is considered to be masterpiece of literature by many scholars, we will examine the structure of the Book and the story development. Then we will unravel the many different themes presented in this Book that make it appropriate for Lenten reading.

Come and spend a few hours with us examining this Book. Bring a Bible.

Admission: freewill offering
All are welcome!
